Employee handbook. This document summarises the main terms of employment that apply to staff working at the company.

Annual leave. Full-time employees receive twenty-five days of annual leave each calendar year, in addition to public holidays. Leave must be booked with a line manager.

The office is open from eight until six on working days, and staff may start and finish earlier or later by agreement with a manager.

Expenses are reimbursed monthly on submission of receipts, and travel must be booked through the approved travel agency.

Equipment such as laptops is issued on the first day of work and must be returned to the technology desk when employment ends.
